National Security Bulletin
January, 2012

Just because the holidays are over does not mean that you forget to send those packages to the active duty military or that their families don't need your support. Please continue to ship packages, help those families in your communities who need you all year long.

Blue Star Banners are a nice way to acknowledge those families who have active duty military defending our freedoms. Please order your banners from Emblem Sales then seek out those families to present the banners to them.

Are you prepared for emergencies in your life and the lives of those in your communities? If not get prepared, make sure that you have supplies on hand to support yourself with emergency rations that you will need in an emergency. If you have a pet please plan on supplies for them also. Water is one of the most important items that you need to have on hand. Clean safe water is a must; keep a few cases of water on hand.

Thank you to those who sent me their mid year report.
