Unit Guidelines for Completing Constitution & Bylaws for Submission to Department for Approval

The following guidelines are provided to assist you and the Department Constitution & Bylaws Chairman. The check-off items will save you time in returns and may answer questions that arise and may delay the approval of your Bylaws. The Department format follows the National Outline and supersedes all previous copies. The revised date at the bottom of pages indicates the all mandated changes are current. It is suggested that spaces be filled by using a typewriter (if possible) since space is limited. This model meets the majority of Unit needs. If you have additional requirements, it is suggested that some of the additions would be better served in your Standing Rules. If not, then use those sections that apply and add your special requirements.

- Art III, Sec 6. (PAGE #4) These figures are not the same as your dues, they are a separate amount. If you do not require a fee to cover the costs of pin, manual, flag, Unit Bylaws, you may place a "0" or the word "none". This amount could range from $3.00 to $10.00 extra depending on what you provide to your new member. Your new member needs a copy of your Unit Bylaws. (A copy of the Department Constitution & Bylaws could be purchased by the member.)
- Art III Sec 9. (PAGE #4) Fill in the amount. If you use the statement "not to exceed" and place the amount in your Standing Rules, make sure it is so stated and that the member receives a copy of your Standing Rules. As of 2004-2005, per capita for Seniors is $17.00 and $2.00 for Juniors. Make sure your current dues at least cover these amounts; otherwise, you are subsidizing your membership and depleting your General Fund.
- Art IV Sec 1. (PAGE #4) Unit Officers. Currently, the total most Units have is 12 plus the Junior Past which totals 13. Your Executive Committeewomen count as one office, but you list the amount from 1 to 3 persons or more. Once you determine what offices are elected and which are appointed, you should have a total of 13. You could have more if you have additional officers. If you do, you must list those officers in this section and then you must include them as either elected or appointed and provide their duties in this article. Elected and appointed officers must total the amount in Section 1. (Musician, Marshal and Parliamentarian are optional. Draw a line through the optional officers that your Unit doesn't have.) Draw through the duties of the officers you don't have (PAGE #6).
- Art IV Sec 2. (PAGE #4) We have provided you with more space for elective officers and also for your listing of appointed officers. Just make sure they total what you have listed in Section 1.
- Art IV Sec 8.(PAGE #5) If you have combined your Secretary/Treasurer, you need only to place a dash (-) or slash mark (/) instead of a comma. A sheet is available from the Department Chairman for you to insert or you can combine these two offices on your own. If you wish the preprinted sheet, write to the Department Chairman.
- Art V Sec 1. (PAGE #6) Unit Meetings. Fill in the space provided. (Example - 1st Wednesday at Post 000 or DAV Hall or member's home.) Put the time in your Standing Rules. If you have dark months, list them in your Standing Rules. You are mandated for at least nine (9) Unit meetings.
- Art V Sec 7 & Art VI Sec 6 (PAGE #7). Fill in your Unit & Board quorums. The number can be even or odd. When setting your quorums, keep in mind the number of members participating and keep your quorums low enough that you can conduct business, especially when a deadline is involved.
